LOUISVILLE TRACKS BETTER

TRAINERS EXPECT TO RESUME FAST WORK IN KENTUCKY TODAY.

Bourbon Beau Likely to Be Saved for the Stud-Rail-Roads Grant Special Rates for Derby Day-Oklahoma Officials Inspect Mutuel Machines.

Louisville, Ky., April 23.—The going at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park was much improved today, but at the former course the "dogs" were still in position and the horses working there had to run near the middle of the track as a consequence. This made the trials more creditable than the time at a giance would appear to indicate. None of the Derby candidates was more than slowly galloped this morning, but all will likely be set down tomorrow, as indications are that the tracks will then be fasi. The best work-outs today were:

All Red—Mile in 1:48%; first three-quarters in 1:17%.
Baythorn—Three-quarters in 1:22.
Bonnle Eloise—Five-eighths in 1:04; first three-eighths in 41%.
El Toro—Half mile in 56%, cantering.
Forehead—Mile in 1:49%; first half in 54.
George Karme—Quarter mile in 26%.
Granite—Half mile in 50%; first three-eighths in 1:35%.
High Private—Mile in 1:49%; first seven-eighths in 1:35%.

Trance—Five-eighths in 1:07, cantering.

Secretary Lyman H. Davis of the Louisville Jockey Club received notification today from J. P. Johnston, secretary of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, that all applications for trainers' or jeckeys' Heenses must be made to him at the office of the commission in Lexington and the fees for same remitted by check or postoffice order. This is because Col. Milton Young, who acts as license committee for the commission, passes on the applications before they are issued by the secretary. Mr. Johnston impressed upon Mr. Davis the necessity for the trainers and jockeys sending in their applications for licenses as early as possible.

Secretary Davis also received a letter from the Louisville passenger committee giving him Derby day rates from all points in Kentucky. The rates will not only cover Derby Day, but all other racing days of the meeting. They are as follows: May 10 and 11, limit May 29, one and one-third fare plus twenty-five cents; May 11, Derby day, one fare, plus twenty-five cents; all other days from the 13th to the 18th inclusive, one and one-third fare plus twenty-five cents; all other days from the 13th to the 18th inclusive, one and one-third fare, plus twenty-five cents; all other days from the 13th to the 18th inclusive, one and one-third fare, plus twenty-five cents; all other days from the 13th to the 18th inclusive, one and one-third fare, plus twenty-five cents; all other days from the 13th to the 18th inclusive, one and one-third fare, plus twenty-five cents; all other days from the 13th to the 18th inclusive, one and one-third fare, plus t

A veterinarian made a careful examination of Bourbon Beau's injury this morning and found that the sesamoid bone in the horse's left leg was out of the socket, which caused the impression that the noted four-year-old had broken his leg. The veterinarian said that this and the rupture of a tendon precluded any chance that he would race again, but he thinks that the horse will unquestionably be saved for the stud. Blood poisoning is the only thing to be feared. Trainer Carroll stated this morning that the horse would remain in his present quarters until he is able to walk away. He will then be sent to the farm. No effort will be made to make a season with him this year. He will do his first stud service in 1913.

the farm. No effort will be made to make a season with him this year. He will do his first stud service in 1913.

The exercising rider Ben Mills, who rode Worth in all his trials as a two-year-old, died here yesterday. Trainer Frank Taylor sent him home from Aiken. S. C., to spend his last days, the boy being afflicted with tuberculosis, Floral wreaths were contributed to his funeral today by Miller Henderson and Ed. Alvey, for both of whom the boy rode before he joined the Hallenbeck stable. He was nineteen years old.

1. S. Mahan. secretary of the Oklahoma City Jockey Club, was here today in company with Manager John Hachmeister of the Latonia association. The latter was merely here on a flying visit and had no especial business to attend to connected with Latonia at this time. Mr. Mahan came here to installing pari-mutuel machines for the Oklahoma City spring race meeting. He stated that this form of betting would be employed at Oklahoma City during the meeting, which will begin June 6 and continue for twenty-five days.

The accident to Bourbon Beau releases jockey Eddie Taplin for the Clark Handicap. T. Collins ungaged Taplin to ride the son of Star Shoot in this race early in the spring at Juarez. Taplin rode Bourbon Beau in his two brilliant winning races at the Mexican track last winter and is now free to take some other mount in the big race to be decided here on May 18.

CANADIAN HALF-MILE TRACK DATES.

Montreal, Que., April 23.—The spring race meeting dates for the Delorimier Park half-mile track are announced for the same week as the Ontario Jockey Club meeting at Woodbine. The control of the Montreal Driving Club, under whose auspices the meeting is announced, is no longer here, the track having passed some time ago to the same management as at Dufferin Park, Toronto, and the coming meeting will be in charge of the Dufferin Park management. The officials formerly employed by the Montreal Driving Club will be replaced. Presiding Judge Ed Cole gives way to Wash Norvell. A number of horses are expected from Toronto, as the customs authorities have refused to accept bonds for such as came in at that port with no intention of racing there until August, when the Dufferin Park meeting will be held. The stables of I. Striker and E. L. Fitzgerald are already here. They were at Juarez last winter. Bensonhurst, ch. g. (1900), by Ben Strome—Irvana.

HORSES RECENTLY RETIRED FROM RACING

One of the features of racing is the disappearance of horses known today to practically all patrons of the sport and forgotten tomorrow. Few thoroughbreds sustain the stress of active racing for more than two or three years without meeting some form of disabling accident. The evergreen veterans, King Avondale for example, are generally sprinters not called upon to endure the severe strain of racing over long distances and serve as the exceptions to the rule of brief service on the race track for the running horse. The year 1910 seems as but yesterday, yet quite an astonishing number of public favorites of that year have been lost to racing. Investigation of this matter has induced Daily Racing Form to make a list of horses active in racing in 1910 and unheard of today. It is such an extensive list that it will be published in sections from time to time, following alphabetical order of names. It will be observed that all of these horses raced in 1910, but not since. Possibly a few of them may be brought back now and then by hopeful owners, but as a rule it may be set down as assured that nearly all of them are forever done with contention on the race track. In the first installment, here presented, some highly distinguished names are included and perusal of these records cannot fall to prove interesting:

TRACK DRIED OUT QUICKLY

STUDENTS OF FORM MISLED BY CHANGING CONDITIONS AT NORFOLK.

Course Was Partially Covered with Water in Morning, but Dust Flies While Races Are Being Run-Bob R. Wins Principal Race.

Norfolk, Va., April 23.—Stirring contests were seen at the Jamestown Jockey Club's course this afternoon. The finishes in a majority of instances found the winners under hard drives and in some cases the result remained in doubt until the official placing was displayed. In the fifth race, eight of the ten horses were closely bunched at the sixteenth post and it was only in the final stride that Blanche Frances managed to get up to score. The track here is one of the best in the country to dry out quickly. This morning there were pools of water on the inside of the course as a result of the heavy rains of yesterday, but the going improved so much that the dust was flying in spots during the running of the races in the afternoon. This deceived the students of form, most of which based their calculations on conditions favoring mud runners. The winners included two favorites, Bob R, and Maie Fletcher. The latter's victory came with the running of the steeplechase, in which she beat Day Bell half a length. The backers of Maie Fletcher cashed their betts maily on a count of the superb riding of Harry Stone. This capable jockey nursed Maie Fletcher along during the early stages, cutting the corners and saving ground on every turn. The result was that in the stretch, where Day Bell made a great effort, Maie Fletcher had just enough in reserve to hold him safe. Day Bell's race represented a meritorious performance. It was his first cross-country effort and after dropping out of forward contention on the first turn of the field, he closed a gap of about thirty lengths. This horse looks like a good jumping prospect.

Magazine, the shifty plater that Capt. P. M. Walker brought up from Charleston, appears to be staling off a bit. He was one of the three starters in the mile allowance race this afternoon and was beaten off by Bob R, and Beaucoup. It may be that the route was too long for Magazine, but at all events he weakened badly in the final quarter.

Boss, which beat a fair lot in the opening dash, is the first of the g

Aviator ran in toe name and interest of R. I. Miller today, the latter having purchased the colt from Capt. P. M. Walker this morning.

The horses that Con Leighton has been training for Mr. Earle have been turned over to Walter House, who will handle them in future.

Hugh Penny received word from jockey Jimmy Reid that he had ridden the winner of the Prix du Casino in Tunis, Algeria. The horse was owned by Vicomte Foy.

The program books for the Woodbine meeting were distributed among the horsemen today by Secretary McLennan and representatives of Mortimer Mahoney.

The track this morning was muddy and slow time was made in the trials. Some of the moves were:

Apiaster—Five-eighths in 1:09.

Brosseau—Mile in 1:55.

Ethel Barry—Three-eighths in 40.

Gun Cotton—Mile in 1:55.

Madman—Three-quarters in 1:21.

Ringling—Three-eighths in 39.

Rubia Granda—Three-quarters in 1:25.

Vesper—Half mile in 52%.

SEAGRAM STRING IN GOOD CONDITION.

Toronto, Ont., April 23.—Trainer Barry Little-field came down from Waterloo and inspected the Woodbine track with a view to deciding on a time for removing Mr. Seagram's horses to the scene of their first racing of the season. He was not impressed by the prospect, and the change will not be made for a week at least. The Waterloo horses had a good winter and did a fair share of work regularly in the snow. The track at the farm is factory order. Twenty horses are in training and jockey Phil Musgrave is riding in the daily work. He has not put on any weight, though he was at home all winter.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is for Baron Maurice de Rothschild that S. C. Hildreth will train in France. James D'Ockhuysen, Baron de Rothschild's former trainer, has leased his establishment at Maisons Laffitte to the Baron and on account of ill health will take a complete rest until October.

Two American owners won races at St. Cloud in France Monday. H. B. Duryea's Bugler, with Magee up, won a race for colis, and Mr. Pfizer's Hiawatha won the handicap. W. K. Vanderbilt's Faventia, with O'Neill up, was third in the race for fillies, in which Mr. Duryea's Stex, with Magee up, was unplaced. Mr. Vanderbilt's Gloria H. was second in the selling plate. Gardener rode two winners and Reiff and Magee one each.

MINOR HAPPENINGS OF THE TURF ABROAD.

Mr. Arthur James has leased his racing stable to Lord Derby.
Go On, the dam of that smart performer, Polar Star, has just dropped a very promising foal to the stallion Wuffy. Go On was barren last year to Sundridge.

The field that started for the Beckhampton Two Year Old Stakes at Newbury, April 12, twenty-two in number, was the smallest that has ever taken part in this particular event.

Mr. William Taylor Sharpe, of Newmarket, and

Mr. William Taylor Sharpe, of Newmarket, and Baumber Park, raceborse owner and breeder, proprietor of the Baumber Stud, breeder of Galopin (winner of the Derby in 1875), Grey Tick (winner of the Cesarewitch in 1903), and of Oberon (winner of the Lincoln in 1887), and who died December 15 last, aged 68 years, left an estate of the gross value of $85,609.

last, aged 68 years, left an estate of the gross value of $58,609.

Another victory has to be recorded for the King, Carol Singer carrying the Royal colors first home in the Worksop Plate at Leicester, April 4. Odds were conceded about his Majesty's son of Thrush, and although Herbert Jones had to shake him up some distance from the finish, the horse ran on gamely and scored by four lengths from Francolin, hearty cheering greeting his success.

The Grand National Steeplechase winner, Jerry M., was originally purchased from his breeder, Mr. Hartigan, for $1,000 by the late Mr. John Widger, for whom he won a few races in Ireland. Subsequently the gelding was on offer to a well-known English owner for $4,000, but the latter declined to take him at the price, and afterwards Mr. Widger disposed of him to Sir C. Assheton-Smith for $7,500.

French, the dam of the American horse, Matelot, the winner of the Newark Plate at Nottingham. has a two-year-old (named Cheerful) by Plaudit, and Mr. R. J. Lacey has a yearling by Sombrero from the same mare to come up at the Newmarket July Soles. French is by Salvator—Boule de Neige, by Donovan—Guelder Rose, by Hampton, Mr. Lacey's Artilla (by Artillery—Duchess of Towers) foaled a filly by Sombrero recently. There seems to be an opinion in England that Sombrero will prove a successful stallion and be is well patronized.

NEW YORK HORSES FOR PIMLICO.

New York. April 23.—New York training quarters will be represented at the coming Pimilco meeting by at least 120 horses. R. T. Wilson has shipped a lot of seventeen that are already on hand at the old Baltimore course. August Belmont has arranged for the shipment of nineteen, and the other lots are divided among various owners. Silas veltch, who is training a big stable of steeplechasers. will take eighteen Thursday and the same day R. E. Watkins will send fourteen.

Matt Allen has an even dozen that he will send, and S. T. Booker has a like number that is made and S. T. Booker has a like number that is made up of consignments from Frank Frisble, George 1902 and August Belmont, has arranged to ship seven and 1905 per left at the Long Island tracks by the last of the week.

FAR WESTERN RACING AT HAND.

Inter-Mountain Circuit, of Increasing Importance, to Open at Coeur d'Alene Saturday.

Spokane, Wash., April 23.—With the opening of the Ocear of Alene Fair and Racing Association's meeting at Alain next Saturday, the 1912 racing season on the Inter-Mountain circuit will be insurant and and for more than six months borsement and followers of racing in the far west will have all the opperation of the state of the desired for enjoying the great outdoor that could be desired for enjoying the great outdoor that could be desired for enjoying the great outdoor that the state of the sta ant told, there will be more than 150 days' racing on the circuit.

All the leading hotels and apartment houses in Spekane, Coeur d'Alene and Post Falis are rapidly filling up with racing enthusiasts. It is expected that at least twenty books will be in line on opening day. The ring will be open to reputable bookmakers in good standing.

The racing plant at Alan is twenty-two miles distant from Spokane, one and one-half miles from Post Falis and six miles from Coeur d'Alene.

The transportation will be ideal. Electric and steam railroads will convey passengers from Spokane to the track in thirty-five minutes.

The officials of the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association are: M. D. Wright, president: Frank W. Smith. secretary; Robert Leighton, presiding judge; Phil Reilly, associate judge and handicapper; Richard Dwyer, starter; Sam MeGibben, clerk of the scales; J. C. Dinue, paddock judge and timer; Richard Dwyer, steward representing the Pacific Jockey Club.

The chief racing feature for the first day of the meeting will be the Opening Handicap, the eligibles for which include Arasee, Meadow, Pride of Lis more, Irish Gentleman, Prince Ahmed, Rose Queen, Jim Basey, Ymir, Cluay, Closer, Uncle Ben, Enfeld, Pawhuska, Balronia, Amoret, Gelico, Flying Footsteps, Oxer, Dr. Dougherty and Ada Meade.

The 200 additional stalls, the construction of which begun last week, have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Among the prominent layers who are expected to book on the opening day are Joe Rose, George Rose, W. R. Engstrom, Sam Bradley, Horace Paul, W. Armstrong, Edward Soule, Byron McNutt, Frank Bain, John Lewis and Roy Offutt.

Eyerything is in readiness for Saturday's opening

Everything is in readiness for Saturday's opening so far as the plant is concerned. The same thing applies to the horses. Most of those quartered here are ready to start.

Jack McGovern's car containing his and the Harris and Knight horses arrived yesterday. There were in all thirteen horses in the car. L. W. Hicks' car of twelve arrived from El Paso.

Jockey Hill arrived from Juarez, where he rede of twelve arrived from El Paso.

Jockey Hill arrived from Jusrez, where he rode successfully. He is still an apprentice.

Secretary Frank W. Smith of the racing association announced yesterday that he would give to the window trimmer who had the best decorated window on the opening day a season pass to the race meeting. The windows are to be decorated in green and e association will also give a season pass to the having the best decorated automobile on the ing day. The car must be decorated in green and white.

AMERICAN-BRED WINS AT WARWICK

London, Eng., April 13.—The Warwick meeting was held in excellent weather, bright sunshine being tempered with a cool wind. There was a capital crowd, plenty of runners and the going was good.

The American; bred Nankeen made short work of the Hampton Welter Handicap on Wednesday. Frank Wootton, who had the mount on J. Ellis Potter's son of Kingston, jumped the horse off in front and, taking a position on the rail, won in easy style by three lengths.

On the same day E. Hulton's filly, Queen Carbine, by Carbine—Sceptre, made her debut in racing and ran third to Washing Day and Rivoli in the Castle Plate at a mile and a quarter.

Louis Winans' Irish purchase, Rot's Pride, Stokes up, took part in the Shakespeare Welter Handicap on Wednesday. The son of Wavelet's Pride ran exceedingly well and at times looked a possible winner, but was unable to lower the colors of P. Gleeson's Sea Water, which won by three-quarters of a length.

LEXINGTON STALL ROOM EXHAUSTED.

No Horses Can Be Accommodated Except The Already Allotted Stabling.

Lexington, Ky., April 23.—The H. C. Hallenbeck stable will not be here until Thursday, according to a telegram received by Charles H. Hughes from trainer Frank M. Taylor this morning. The delay is due to inability to get proper shipping accommoda-tions due to inability to get proper shipping accommodations.

Arrivals today were G. H. Coyle, with the unbeaten two-year-old Hawthorn; J. H. Mead, with John Louis, Chapultepec and Salali; R. J. Powers, with Coppertown and W. H. Ford; T. P. Brannon, with Bill Whaley, Lauretta, Stolworthy and Bernadetta B.; R. E. Campbell, with Workbox and Irish Queen; J. Henry, with Hamnis; and J. L. Sweeney, with Millo. All possible stable room at the track and in its vicinity has been preempted.

Superintendent Ross says that positively not another horse than those already provided for can be given quarters. The stables of Thomas C. McDowell, T. P. Hayes, George J. Long, C. C. Van Meter, George M. Odom, Henderson & Hogan and others for whom reservations were made are expected from Louisville tomorrow and Thursday.

Among the good riders that will be here are Carroll Shilling, Clarence Turner, Charles Peak, J. Molesworth, Jimmy Moore, J. McCabe, Roscoe Goose, and Carl Ganz.

There was nothing sensational in the work at the track this morning. The track was heavy, but drying out rapidly. This afternoon harrows were put upon it and it should be good tomorrow and fast by Thursday.

THE KEMPTON QUEEN'S PRIZE WINNER.

Concerning the American-bred winner of the rich Kempton Park Queen's Prize, London Sporting Life of April 12 says: "Though it is a little late in the day, some consideration may be given to the pedigree of Duke of Sparta II., the winner of the Queen's Prize at Kempton last Monday. The more so because he appears to be one of the exceptions to the general run of American-bred horses—that is to say, a stayer. When, however, his pedigree comes to be examined in detail, any surprise occasioned by his display of stamina quickly vanishes. True, his sire, Dieudonne, was renowned for speed rather than staying power, but even in Dieudonne's case there are those stout horses Rosebery and Isonomy at the second remove. Duke of Sparta II.'s dam was Jovita, a chestnut mare, bred in 1898 by Mr. J. B. Haggin at Rancho del Paso, in California. She was by the imported Bassetlaw (son of St. Simon) out of Santa Rita, by Virgil out of Madam Dudley, by Lexington out of imported Britannia, by The Flying Dutchman. Jovita herself was never trained, and Duke of Sparta II. was her third and last produce, for she dled in 1908, the year after he was foaled. Santa Rita won several races in America as a two and three-year-old, and was the dam of useful winners. But the main point for consideration is that, through St. Simon, Blair Athol, and Lexington, Jovita was very likely to have acquired the heritable characters that make for stamina. Duke of Sparta II. was offered for sale as a yearling in the States, but presumably did not make his reserve, for the same autumn he was in the ring at Newmarket, and sold for 65gs only. The following year his only success was gained in a Juvenile Selling Plate at Alexandra Park, and he was then bought in for 210gs. At that time he was called Donnez-Moi. Meanwhile he has made substantial progress under the fostering care of his trainer, Alf. Sadler, Jr. and even yet we may not have seen the best of him."

JINGLING GEORDIE AND HALL CROSS.

Several Two Thousand Guineas and Epsom Derby candidates made their first appearance in racing as three-year-olds at the Newbury Spring meeting, April 11 and 12, three of which, J. Buchanan's Jingling Geordie, Duke of Portland's Serenader and C. Bower Ismay's Hall Cross, ran in quite satisfactory fashion. Jingling Geordie carried 127 pounds and won the $5,000 Greenham Stakes at a mile by a neck from Serenader, 130 pounds, with S. Joel's Maiden Erlegh a neck behind. Jingling Geordie was the favorite at 11 to 10 and since that race has further distinguished himself by winning the Craven Stakes at Newmarket last week with Apprentice second. Hector third and the 6 to 4 favorite, Lord Rosebery's Clodius unplaced. Last year much was expected of Jingling Geordie, which he right way and may make amends as a three-year-old for the disappointments he gave his owner as a two-year-old. In beating Serenader he vanquished a proved good one. Of his appearance and race, London Sporting Life said:

for the disappointments he gave his owner as a twoyear-old. In beating Serenader he vanquished a proved good one. Of his appearance and race, London Sporting Life said:

"Jingling Geordie was quite the swell of the party in the paddock before the Greenham Stakes.
Bright in his coat, with plenty of muscle about his quarters, it was plain to see that he had of late pleased his trainer. He may not have grown a deal since last year, but has furnished excellently. In action his length of stride is quite remarkable, but those who had laid slight edds on him took exception to the way he dropped his ears in the preliminary canter. From below the distance in the race itself, Jingling Geordie promised a many lengths victory, but Woolton was content to take matters very casily, though in the dip Maiden Erlegh and Serenader became so threatening that he had to slacken rein and shake the son of Santry up for all he was worth to gain a neck victory."

It is worth noting that Minoru won the Greenham Stakes for King Edward and then much greater glory by subsequently taking the Epsom Derby.
There will not be lacking those who will draw a parallel and back Jingling Geordie to follow Minora's precedent.

Hall Cross, on the same day, won the Berkshire

In heat races there shall be an allowance of ave pounds from the scale of weights.
